

Worldwide Humanitarian Relief

SYRIAN CRISIS RESPONSE

IOCC works with and through the Greek Orthodox Patriarchate of Antioch and All the East, Department of Ecumenical Relations and Development (GOPA-DERD), as well as interfaith and international partners, including the United Nations, in response to the Syrian crisis. All aid is provided without discrimination and based solely on need.

EMERGENCY SUPPLIES

Food, clothing, infant-care and dignity kits, bedding, blankets, mattresses, and other emergency provisions

JOB OPPORTUNITIES

Livelihood programs to rebuild communities and offer jobs and income to families

WATER

Clean water and sanitation facilities to curb the spread of disease

CHILDREN'S HEALTH

Child-friendly spaces, pre- and postnatal care and nutrition

MEDICAL CARE

Essential medicines and life-saving medical equipment

EDUCATION

School renovations, access to remedial classes, and school kits and uniforms

SHELTER

Housing assistance, repairs, and renovations

PSYCHOSOCIAL CARE

Art and music therapy, stress management, and trauma counseling for adults and children

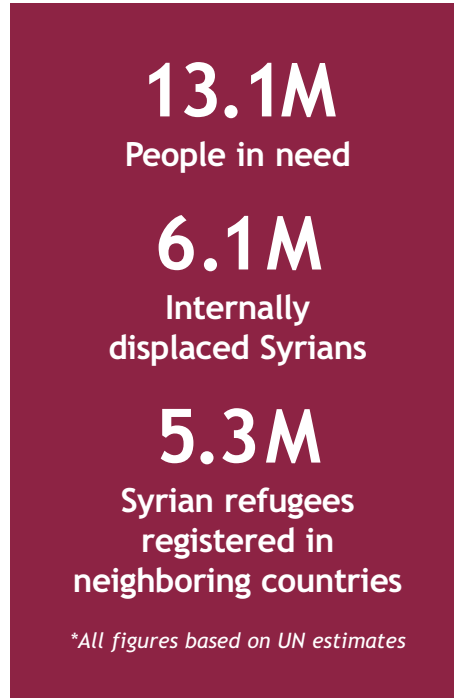

Responding to Great Need

Since 2012, IOCC has assisted millions of Syrians in-country and those seeking refuge across the Middle East and Europe.

SYRIA: Providing safe places where homeless, orphaned, or displaced children and those with disabilities can receive psychosocial support

SYRIA: Assisting internally displaced people with education and job opportunities, plus housing, school, and infrastructure rehab to help many return home

LEBANON: Improving infrastructure and providing meals, water, and dignity kits to refugees in urban population centers; providing education on childhood nutrition to Syrian mothers

JORDAN: Offering infant- and child-nutrition counseling, plus screenings and treatment for refugees and Jordanians with disabilities

GREECE: Equipping refugee families with refrigerators, heating fuel, and portable ovens; offering schooling and nutritional snacks to refugee children

INTERNATIONAL ORTHODOX CHRISTIAN CHARITIES

Headquarters: 110 West Road, Suite 360 • Baltimore, MD 21204 USA

Tel: 410.243.9820 • Online: iocc.org

Toll Free Donation Hotline: 1.877.803.IOCC (4622)

a member of actalliance