Since 2015, your gifts have helped microenterprises and small businesses across Greece—like Eorge, a women’s association that produces and sells traditional pasta. IOCC provides equipment, training, and business mentoring, improving productivity and profitability, and helping over 1,500 families.